

Ariana Grande, Coldplay, Katy Perry, Miley Cyrus and more will join the 'One Love Manchester' concert on Sunday

Ariana Grande, Miley Cyrus, Pharrell Williams, Usher, Katy Perry, Justin Bieber, Niall Horan and Take That will perform for the upcoming benefit concert - One Love Manchester, to tribute and fund the victims of Manchester attack.

Ariana has recently revealed the details of her benefit concert called One Love Manchester which will be conducted at the Emirates Old Trafford Cricket Ground on 4th June, Sunday. Ariana will be joined by all-star roster of her megastar friends and musicians and all the net ticket proceeds from the show will go to the We Love Manchester Emergency Fund which is set up by Manchester City Council and the British Red Cross to aid the families and victims of the concert attack. The organizers are expecting to raise a fund of £2 million from the concert ticket proceedings which will be passed on to the victims.

General admission tickets will go on sale from Thursday, June 1 at 10 AM through Ticketmaster. Fans who were present at the Manchester Arena show when the bombing was incurred on May 22, will be offered free tickets and they will have to register online on this link before May 31. The venue has a capacity of 50,000 and it will be broadcasted live on air BBC TV, BBC Radio and Capital Radio Networks.

The show will be heavily secure and the organizers will be working closely with Greater Manchester Police and private security to ensure a safe show. As per the core organizer, there will be more than double security personnel on ground and police will closely resource the concert for full safety as they want people to feel safe while visiting events in Manchester.

One Love Manchester will show that Manchester is not defeated, humanity is not defeated and we are standing together, united against evil and terror. And as ever, the victims and their loved ones should remain our focus in the days, months and years to come. What they have gone through is unfathomable. But let's hope this concert can provide even some small comfort to them at what is no doubt a dark and difficult time. One Love Manchester.
