

Winners of American Music Award 2018

The most awaited, world's largest fan-voted award show, American Music Award was held yesterday in Los Angeles. The award show was hosted by ABC star Tracee Ellis Ross, who hosted this show consecutively second time. He entertained the fans with her witty humour and comedic timing. The fans watched the whole Award show via-air straight from the Microsoft Theatre, Los Angeles.

Just like every year, artists entertained their fans with their jaw-dropping performance, and won the heart of their fans. Now to talk about the awards, Taylor Swift just surpassed Whitney Houston. Whitney Houston had record of total 21 trophies, which Taylor Swift surpassed this year by taking total of 4 awards this year, making it total of 23 awards for the lifetime. Taylor took on the stage with her fabulous performance of her single 'I Did Something Bad'.

Jennifer Lopez aka J-Lo also performed her powerful ballad 'Limitless' from her film Second Act. While, everyone's favourite female rapper Cardi B rocked the stage with her new hit 'I like it' with J Balvin and Bad Bunny. The award show also had the knockout performance of other great artists like Camila Cabello, Carrie Underwood, Dua Lipa, Mariah Carey, Post Malone featuring Ty Dolla $ign, Shawn Mendes with Zedd and Twenty One Pilots.

Now coming to the nominees and winner, here is the list of nominees and winners of AMAs 2018. The bold name depicts the winner from the list of nominees.
